"A strong brand is critical in the new era of the smart-home," said Jeff Gardner, MONI's President and CEO. "Through this agreement with BRINKS, we will go to market with the #2 nationally recognized home security brand that symbolizes strength, security and, most importantly, trust. The BRINKS name provides us with a more dynamic growth profile and strengthens MONI's position as a leader in the growing smart-home security market. This is truly an exciting opportunity for our dealers, customers, employees and investors."

"For over 150 years, BRINKS has been synonymous with trust, safety and security. Our agreement with MONI brings our iconic brand back to the forefront in the home security market in a way that is mutually beneficial for both companies and provides consumers with a single, compelling source for their home security needs," said Doug Pertz, CEO of The Brink's Company.
